

CHURCH OF HOPE SYDNEY NEWS

CHURCH ON THE CROSS OUTREACH MISSION

VISION FOR SYDNEY

PURPOSE:

The Church on the Cross has a heart to see the community within the Kings Cross area and beyond, impacted by the love of God and the Gospel message through:

- 1) street and community outreaches,
- 2) the clear communication of the good news of the gospel to the unsaved.
- 3) creating an atmosphere of love and acceptance in all meetings / outreaches,
- 4) encouraging and equipping believers to fulfil their God given destinies.
- 5) assisting local churches in the area of mobilising evangelism teams

CORE FOCUS:

- 1) To help see the streets of Sydney reached with the Gospel,
- 2) To see new believers disciplined and planted in a local church,
- 3) To see small group and outreach team leaders trained up, and
- 4) To equip and help mobilise believers to share the gospel message.

NEW MISSION WORK IN SYDNEY

Church of Hope has sent two of our Pastors, Conrad and Marian Fenton to pioneer a new work in Sydney.

Since going to Sydney, many doors have opened. The "Church on the Cross" pioneer work has two major meetings. Friday night in the Fitzroy Gardens in Kings Cross (Open Air Meeting) and a Saturday Night outreach meeting in the Wayside Chapel. Conrad and Marian are now also ministering in the Parramatta Prison.

The heart of this new Ministry is to see the community in the Kings Cross impacted by the love of Jesus, and to see the gospel proclaimed in the streets of Sydney. Each outreach gives Christians the opportunity of being equipped as they become a part of a ministry team.
